MAYOR REPORT(S) (5 min each):

- Corry:
  - Resident’s Meeting held on March 21st:
    - Policy on the use of Drying Racks and Breezeway Policy aggravated residents served incident reports. Can the rule be relaxed till a communal drying rack is provided?
    - Can the breezeway policy be reviewed and updated?
    - Future events were discussed, and new movies are expected to be delivered soon.
    - Residents requested for the GFH 5k run, chess game, more communal volunteer work:
      - Dean: Submit ERS for a board game or talk with CAs to put up a chess event.
    - School Bus pick up location needs an overhead cover for protection against the weather, also there is a need for overhead covers over the bus stops adjacent and across RTS bus stops in Corry
      - Azfar: We can help facilitate a conversation with RTS, but it is the responsibility of RTS to provide this.
      - Gadou: Diamond Village experiences similar issues.
    - Covered bike racks in Corry Village
      - Jason: A proposal was submitted to this regard. Will follow up.
    - Facebook Page incident with Residents
      - Jason: Mayors and CAs will stop posting on current Facebook pages. Official social media pages will be communicated to residents once IT sets up accounts for each village.

- Diamond:
  - Tabled possible breakfast event for Residents with toys present for children. Unanimous agreement.
    - Dean: Submit an ERS to this regard.

- Maguire: No Report

- Tanglewood:
  - Paperwork for Fitness classes for Summer will be underway this week.
  - CPR Event in Tanglewood has been moved to April 22nd, tentatively.

- UVS:
  - Resident’s Meeting held on MArch 23rd:
    - All seats are filled for the Butterfly Event for Maguire/UVS.
    - Future events were presented and discussed.
    - Can the movies under the stars event be moved from Summer to Spring, because of bugs?
    - Residents have complaints about the breezeway policy.
  - Communication between GFH and Mayor’s Council
    - Lately, the Maguire Village Office has been locked without prior notice
Sign up sheets for events posted in the offices have been removed by SAs on one or more occasions.

- Dean: First page of Mayor’s binder should have everybody’s contact info; CAs, Mayors, UPD, so the necessary party can be easily contacted in any situation.

EXECUTIVE REPORT(S) (5 min each):

- Treasurer:
- Vice President:
- President:
  - Gave the floor to the Executive Director of Housing for a word
    - Azfar: The goal of housing is to continuously support Jason and MC to achieve their goals.
  - Resident communication guidelines
    - It is important to implement communication to avoid conflict/disorder.
    - Mayor’s should give residents their contact information, explain your position as a liaison between them, Housing, and UF during residents’ meeting and every opportunity you get
  - Spring Fling 2017
    - Spring Fling was really successful, almost 250 people in attendance, nothing but compliments have been received
  - President Election
    - A new President election has to be held in April according to the constitution. The election will be held during the next MC meeting on April 10.
    - Nomination Forms will be sent out. The position is open only to MC members
  - Summer Mayors’ Council requirements
    - Proposed: Twice a month, physical presence not required
      - Emmanuel: Objects to biweekly meetings
      - Iwan: Financially, bi-weekly benefits us because of ERS
      - Dean: Once a month meeting for sure, possible meetings if ERS needs to be voted on.
    - Final decision: Monthly meetings, and subsequent meeting depending on ERS submission. Unanimous agreement.
  - Human bowling event idea
    - Proposed GFH wide event. Permit will be required, also age limit for participation
  - Movies Under the Stars
    - MC members should start thinking up movies for the event
  - Email is the official mode of communication to residents
